BOOK SYNOPSIS

Its the middle of the night when 21-year-old Leo arrives on the doorstep of the West Village apartment where his feisty 91-year-old grandmother Vera lives. Shes an old Communist who lives alone, hes a latter-day hippie, recently returned from a cross-country bike trip which ended traumatically. Over the course of a single month, these unlikely roommates infuriate, bewilder, and ultimately connect. When Leos old girlfriend shows up and he begins to reveal the mysterious events of his journey, Leo and Vera discover the narrow line between growing up and growing old. Peopled with nuanced, beautifully-drawn characters, Amy Herzogs award-winning play has established her as a remarkable new talent. 4000 Miles had its 2011 world premiere at New Yorks Lincoln Center Theater.
