BOOK SYNOPSIS

Moving into his sisters old bedroom, Andrew unexpectedly finds her clothes still in the closet. Everyone is out of the house and he feels compelled to try on a silk dress over his sisters matching bra and panties. Sarah, a year younger than him, comes home unexpectedly with her lesbian lover Ellen and finds him dressed as a girl. It is the perfect opportunity to introduce him more and more to dressing as a girl so that they can swap places and she can attend his college in New York to be with Ellen. The problem is that her high school school place is at a girls boarding school. Their scheme has a novel twist when the new girl turns out to be prettier than either of them and even comes to love her new life at the school. The ending is not what either of them could possibly have expected.
